

BOYNE HIGHLANDS RESORT

An ideal retreat for families and romantic couples, the 6,000-acre Boyne Highlands Resort in Harbor Springs, MI is a haven for recreational enthusiasts and outdoor lovers, with numerous opportunities for golfing, skiing, fishing, hunting, or simply relaxing. Guests also can enjoy skating, mountain biking, volleyball, tennis, hay rides, and massages at the Wellness Institute.

This smoke-free property captures the charm of an English Country Estate, with accommodations ranging from studio rooms and suites to townhouses and condos. The resort provides internet access, meeting facilities for up to 800 guests, outdoor pools, hot tub, saunas, and gift shops with everything from lift tickets to imported chocolates.

Lodging is $65.00 (w/local & resort tax $70.95) per night for single, $79.00 (w/local & resort tax $81.86) a suite and Pleasant View Suite for $149.52. Individuals are responsible for making reservations directly with the hotel. All reservations must be made by using the reservation form on the back side of this form. Please make a copy and complete and either mail or fax your reservation form to: BOYNE, Central Reservations Dept., P.O. Box 19, Boyne Falls, MI 49713. No phone calls will be accepted and reservations at the group rate are only guaranteed and must be made by August 16, 2010.

Fax #231-549-6844

Telephone #1-800-462-6963

Check in time is 5:00 p.m. (may check in early if room is available) and check out time is 1:00 p.m.

LERMA Training Conference

September 15-17, 2010

Boyne Highlands Resort

600 Highlands Drive
Harbor Springs, MI 49740
1-800-276-7415

Training by: Betsy Brantner
Dave Smith & Associates
Law Enforcement Training Consultant

Training Topics:

"Organizational and Career Survival"
&
"Training & Serving the Generations"

Betsy is a dynamic speaker who is a 29-year veteran of a large Chicago suburban police department. Betsy writes for numerous law enforcement publications and regular columnist for "Police One" and on-air commentator for "Police One TV". She has also been a content expert and instructor for Calibre Press "Street Survival".

Topics will cover: Leadership-risk Taking and Organizational Change (dealing with less people in the work place) AND Training New Generations with relating to senior citizens.

AGENDA

Wed: Networking opportunity: Ride the Zip-line through the beautiful landscaped Boyne Highlands Resort. Cost is $59 a person and is additional to the conference charge. Appetizers are included with cash bar available. Zip-line time is tentatively set 3:30-6:00 pm. If attending the appetizer get-together only, cost is $10 plp and starts at 6:00 pm.

Thursday: Registration 8:30 a.m. Training at 9:00 a.m. Lunch at 11:30 a.m. will be provided at the resort. Training from 1:00 p.m. and concludes at 4:00 p.m. Thursday evening will be on your own.

Friday: Breakfast at 7:00 a.m. will be provided at the resort. Training begins at 9:00 a.m. and concludes at noon.

REGISTRATION

Make checks payable to: LERMA

Mail Registration form with payment by July 31st to:
Carol Wright, Troy PD, 500 W. Big Beaver, Troy, MI 48084
TX: 248-524-3440 FAX: 248-524-1503

Name

Department

Address

Phone

E-Mail

Please make additional copies for extra attendees.

Conference Cost for LERMA members is $50.00—This includes conference materials, lunch on Thursday, breakfast on Friday and conference gift.

NON LERMA Members and Out Of State attendees please contact Carol Wright for conference cost at 248-524-3440 or email at wrightcs@troymi.gov

I will attend Wednesday afternoon networking activity:

Zip-line @ $59 _____ Yes _____ No (includes appetizers)
Guest will participate @ $59 _____ Yes _____ No
Appetizers Get-together Only @ $10 _____ Yes _____ No
Guest Appetizer Only @ $15 _____ Yes _____ No
(Payment for each person must be included w/registration)

My Guest will join us for the lunch on Thursday _____.

My Guest will join us for breakfast on Friday _____.

(Guest meals are $20.00 per meal and payment must be included with registration.)